CAAAS Design

In Focus

Each space in the Center for Adolescent & Adult Autism Services is custom designed to meet the needs of our client population.

MEDICAL/TELEHEALTH SUITE

NEED: People with autism suffer associated mental and physical health conditions at a much higher rate than the general population.

DESIGN: State-of-the-art clinic will support specialized health needs such as seizure response and medication management, as well as facilitating direct telehealth connection to specialists.