

Compassionate, evidence-based services supporting
Students, Families, and School Districts

- James C. Hormel School - private special education day school for students whose needs exceed the capacities of their current school
- Intensive School-Based Intervention - collaborating with schools to build their staff capacity to serve at-risk learners
- School Readiness Program - intensive behavioral therapies supporting success in the least-restrictive environment
- Psychological Services - diagnostic evaluation, parent coaching, and individual and group therapy for children and adolescents
- Speech Language Therapy - evaluation and treatment of a wide range of communication challenges